CMS Suspends Seamless Conversion Enrollment

Seamless conversion is a process that allows organizations to enroll individuals from their current healthcare coverage into a Medicare Advantage plan offered by the same organization as of the first day their Medicare coverage starts, if they do not elect to receive coverage in another way. Ohio does not have any plans with or seeking approval for seamless conversion. Read more

CMS Encouraging Beneficiaries to Review High Rated Plans

CMS is issuing notices to individuals enrolled in plans with less than three stars for three consecutive years. The notice will alert beneficiaries to the sponsor or organization’s low rating and encourage them to review higher rated plan options during the annual election period. Read more
